

OKANOGAN VALLEY CHAPTER NEWSLETTER

FEBRUARY 2009

The President's Corner

Peg gets angry with me because I seem to start each newsletter with a weather report. She says people can look out the window and see the weather, but I can't resist. So, as I write this, winter is still with us but it cannot seem to decide if it should blanket us with fog, snow on us or get colder. No matter what, I think right about now everybody is ready for some spring weather.

There is going to be a slight changing of the guard from what was printed in the Yearbook. Linda Parker will be retiring as Treasurer and she will be replaced by Cathy Kvistad. Thank you Linda for your hard work over the years as the newsletter editor and as treasurer. Cathy will be a welcome new face on the board and I look forward to having her participate and bring some fresh thoughts to our board meetings. Gail Sunde will remain as the Social Director for 2009 so you should respond to her for any social events that require an RSVP. You might want to make note of the change in your 2009 Yearbook.

February is the real start of our 2009 and we will kick it off with our Sweetheart Potluck and Dessert Auction Feb. 18th. This is always a crowd pleaser and with a few new members, I think we might have some new desserts to auction off. With out a doubt, there will be plenty of calories to go around. February 21st is the packing clinic at the CCC in Tonasket. See Tom's article further in the newsletter for the details.

If you have not renewed your dues, this will be the last newsletter and Trailhead News you will receive until you do renew your dues. But in regards to the last Trailhead News you did receive, be sure to read the Whistler Canyon Trailhead article written by Trygve Culp. This project is very important to BCHW and to Okanogan Valley Chapter as it will provide a new, easy access trailhead to the National Forest. If you or anybody that you know would like to donate funds to this worthy project, let me know and I will mail a donation letter.

The Baxter Black performance is getting closer. If you are planning to attend, don't wait too long to purchase your tickets. Just as we did in 2005, we are expecting a "sell-out." Since Baxter will not come again in 2010, we have scheduled "Wylie and the Wild West" for a concert and cowboy poetry performance on March 27th, 2010. I had never heard of Wylie, but Peg has and so have many others. All claim he is an excellent performer.

That's all folks. I'll see you on the trail, but not until it gets a little warmer.
Dave

2009 YEARBOOKS

The 2009 Yearbooks are here and have been distributed to every 2009 current member. If you did not receive your Yearbook it could be because you are not current with your 2009 dues. If you have a question, please contact Peggy Swanberg at davepeg@gdimail.net or 486-1107. And just as a side note, this will probably be the last newsletter you receive unless you renew your membership!

See you on the trail!

DONATIONS

Our Chapter has just received a nice donation from Omak hay growers, Don and Wendy Mahlendorf. Earlier in 2008, they offered to donate $.50 per bale for every bale purchased by an OVBCB member and their generous check arrived January 2nd.

Their donation is very much appreciated and will be put to good use for fuel, materials and meals for volunteers working in support of our mission statement.

If you know the Mahlendorfs or purchase hay from them, please let them know how much we appreciate their donation. They are a good source of quality hay as well as certified weed seed free forage now a necessity for use in the National Forest. If you have not purchased hay from them, you might consider it in the future. It's always nice to support those that help to support us.

TRAIL BOSS REPORT FEBRUARY 2009

The Trail Boss Report will be a little short this month as there isn't much happening in the trails department in January and February.

The main event coming up on February 21 is the annual packing clinic to be held at the Tonasket Community Cultural Center from 0900-1500. We will have three instructors, Trygve Culp, Bob Crowell and Tom Windsor who are all experienced packers with both the Sawbuck and Decker packing systems. Bob Crowell will also present some instruction on use of the Lumber Bunks and how to pack boards and poles on them.

We will be using fabricated pack horses made from 2X4's and plastic barrels. If you would like to bring your own pack saddle(s) and pads to get a little "hands on" with your own equipment, please do so. We'll look at your equipment and give you some tips on how to get the best use of it and how to best make it compatible with your pack horse.

We will have some hands on training using panniers (pack boxes), manties and top packs. Ropes, knots and hitches will be demonstrated and you can get some practice preparing many loads, pannier (box) loads, top packs and actually loading the "pack horses".

Some of the topics we will cover include:

- Pack saddle parts
- Pack pad placement and cinching the pack saddle in place
- Characteristics of a good pack horse
- Types of pack saddles
- Basket hitch, Barrel Hitch, Crowsfoot Hitch, Christensen Hitch, Decker Diamond
- Use of many tarps
- Use of weigh scales
- Preparation of many loads and box loads
- Top pack use
- Lumber Bunk use
- Lash cinch and rope
- Other as time permits

Don't forget the chainsaw certification on Saturday, 7 March at the Tonasket Ranger District Headquarters.

Director's Year End Report

Trygve Culp

I hope that each of you had a joyous Christmas and that your blessings carry into the New Year

For the Chapter and BCHW it has been quite a year. I believe the Chapter set new records for volunteer hours in every category. We conducted a very well run horse auction last spring and sold nearly 100 animals although receipts were down from past years – maybe it was a harbinger of the global financial crisis that ensued during the late summer and fall – who knows. We did several BIG trail projects, the Antoine and Cabin turnpikes, the Johnny Bell turnpikes and construction of the loading chute at Bannan Mountain trailhead, to name just three. I don't know how many miles of trail we got logged out, but I'm sure that it was a bunch. In addition I think we had 8 or 10 no-host dinners, a Chapter campout, a wonderful ice cream social, several good trail rides and a whole host of other events to numerous for me to recall. Additionally, it was heartening to hear and read about all of the ladies rides over the course of the year. The biggest deal – at least in my mind – though, was our formal partnering with the Okanogan – Wenatchee National Forest to raise $50,000.00 to assist the Forest Service to purchase the Whistler Canyon Trailhead property from Okanogan County. I'd bet money, chalk or marbles that this is the largest single project in terms of dollars ever undertaken by any Chapter in BCHW.

was BCHW had quite a year, also. In January, the organization was awarded provisional 501c3 status by the IRS and the Board of Directors adopted new By-Laws reflecting that change. Those actions precipitated some heated discussions around the state and made for an interesting General Meeting at the Jubilee in March. Some ongoing glitches – primarily due to IRS financial reporting requirements - remain with the transition, but I believe the biggest bumps are behind us. The Jubilee and fund raising event in Ellensburg was the best state event I have attended in many years – thanks in particular to our very own Dave Swanberg who chaired the event. On another front, BCHW was instrumental in getting the state-wide weed seed free forage program off the ground to get Washington into compliance with US Forest Service requirements for use of that type forage on lands they administer. On yet another hot button issue, BCHW successfully negotiated with the LNT parent organization to allow us to formally incorporate the use of saddle and pack stock in our “in house” LNT program. The 62,000 or so volunteer hours we contributed in 2008 to keeping trails open around the state is unmatched by any other user group organization. If you think about how those hours are “leveraged” by the land management agencies that benefit from our efforts we donated well over $1.5 million worth of labor, stock use, equipment use, and mileage; additionally, a whole host of other, less tangible benefits for public use and enjoyment of the back country resulted from our efforts. BCHW actively participated in the rules revision process for the Washington Department of Natural Resources. As a result of our efforts: the non-permitted party size was increased from 5 people to 30 so that various Chapter activities could occur on WDNR administered lands without filing to obtain a formal permit; overnight parking at certain (equestrian) trailheads is allowed; and, volunteers can perform minor maintenance such as log out on WDNR trails without first obtaining a permit. BCHW active in the legislative arena, too. Our efforts were the driving force behind passage of the state joint resolution to the President and Congress to allow the unfettered use of saddle and pack stock on public lands – sort of our contribution to “Right to Ride”.

VOLUNTEER HOURS

This year we will be trying to track volunteer hours at the Chapter level a little more closely and we will be assigning our own dollar values to our work. You will be getting a better explanation of what will be required as an insert in your 2009 Yearbook. It looks complicated but it just requires that you report your hours and mileage accurately and timely to me. If you have a question, just send me the information and I'll figure it out.

I will also be trying to compile a report by individual members in order to streamline what we go through at the end of the year when we figure out badges and such. It might be overwhelming when we get into the months when volunteering is at a peak, but if everybody reports their hours timely, it will be much easier to keep up.

If you would like to check your personal accumulation, I will send it to you via e-mail. If you cannot open the file, I would be happy to send you accumulative totals electronically. No paper copies though, the report just gets to be too large and cumbersome.

And for your general information, the dollar value of our volunteer hours submitted for December of 2008 was $1534.00. Way to go!

Peg

Those of us brave (or foolish) enough to venture out on December 13th for the Chapter Christmas party had an opportunity to review the proposed activity calendar for 2009. It looks like we have another busy, fun filled year ahead of us. I look forward to seeing and visiting with all of you out on the trails. Again, best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year. Happy trails!

COWBOY COFFEE HINT: Put your preferred amount of grounds in a coffee filter and sew it closed. Add as many packets to the coffee pot as you think are necessary and boil away. You can make several of these packets up in advance and either "chain stitch" the packets together or just put them back in the container that stores your coffee. Peg
